To whom it may concern:

Over the past half-year, I've had the pleasure of collaborating with Deanne for our company's annual Notified Body Training. Deanne's exceptional talents, considerate approach, and delightful personality have made our collaboration not only productive but thoroughly enjoyable. Her acute understanding of our business needs and budget constraints was highly commendable. Despite the challenges we faced in securing a suitable venue within our budget this year, Deanne adeptly navigated us through these hurdles with grace and expertise. Even during the holiday season, she went the extra mile to ensure that our event contract was finalized, showcasing her commitment to our project's success.

I look forward to continuing to work with Deanne on upcoming projects. Her exemplary dedication and skill set make her an invaluable asset, and I am confident that our future endeavors will be equally successful under her guidance.

Sincerely,

Taylor Nordhagen
