

I have been using Danise Brownlee of HelmsBriscoe for 13 years now and couldn't imagine doing my job without her. Danise is basically an extension of my team; she is always there when I need her and ready to lend a hand. She is a pleasure to work with and consistently goes above and beyond. She works hard to ensure all of our event needs are met and makes me feel as though I am her only client with the level of service she provides.

To Whom it May Concern:

AESP has worked with HelmsBriscoe and Danise Brownlee for many years. Their expertise and experience are instrumental in helping us negotiate the best possible pricing at the ideal venues. Danise, in particular, has successfully re-negotiated contracts for AESP due to Covid-19 which could have turned out very differently. In short, we consider them our partner and AESP has come to rely on them heavily for guidance. I highly recommend using HelmsBriscoe for your venue search, scheduling site visits and contract negotiations. They streamline the process; remove the stress and make the experience much more enjoyable.
