To Whom it May Concern:

I highly recommend the services of Joy Bollig, HelmsBriscoe. It took some time to convince my board that we needed Joy, but once we started working with her, we were very satisfied. I am pleased with the options she presents and the suggestions she recommends with our negotiations and contracts. Joy's knowledge and attention to detail have aided in keeping our meetings on track during our planning process. Prior to working with Joy, we would often find ourselves in some difficult situations due to our inexperience. Working with HelmsBriscoe has eliminated the issues that caused these situations. Overall, I feel as though our company is taken more seriously in this industry as we have the backing of the well-respected, HelmsBriscoe.

I am continually impressed by the promptness and professionalism of Joy's services. I feel confident in recommending Joy's services. She is not only thorough, but also easy to work with, and always willing to take the time to discuss my concerns and respond to questions.
