

Associate Testimonial:

Lindy is great to work with, she has seen our contract through to the end, originally signed in 2019/2020 and fulfilled in 2022. She helped us update our contract with the hotel multiple times, always looking out for our best interest. Lindy is fast to respond and always follows through on all requests. She knows all about current conference trends and keeps me updated. I am so happy I have her by my side, I can't wait to work with her again! She makes conference planning 10x easier for me and I appreciate it 100%!

HelmsBriscoe Testimonial:

HelmsBriscoe has supported AllianceChicago in contracting with hotels for over 5 years. Prior to working with HelmsBriscoe, we would spend 50+ hours sourcing and contracting with hotels. Working with HelmsBriscoe, saves us time and money. They work on our behalf to get us the best pricing and terms to meet our needs. We will always use HelmsBriscoe when contracting with hotels!

To Whom It May Concern:

Working with Lindy, Andrea, and the Helms-Briscoe team has been fantastic. They have consistently gotten us great value in booking events and are generally wonderful to work with.

You never think that something will go wrong in running a conference, but it happens. When we had a recent issue, Lindy was our number one advocate. She worked tirelessly to make the situation right and helped me remain calm and confident in the process. Having her on my team is priceless.

Lindy's relationships across the industry are unparalleled and give us plenty of options for conferences. She truly works on our side and helps with all stages of the process. She knows our organization well enough to think about the little details that make events special. She lays out processes on our timeline and fixes problems before they even arise. Lindy is truly exemplary to work with.

I greatly value what Helms-Briscoe brings to my work and I encourage you to work with them as well. Being part of their family has been fantastic for our organization.

All my best,

To Whom It May Concern,

One of the best partnerships Georgia PTA has entered into is with HelmsBriscoe and Lindy Long. Georgia PTA is an all-volunteer organization with board members throughout the state; we are constantly juggling and coordinating busy schedules. Lindy handles our craziness with an ease and a grace that is rare to find these days.

Recently, we had a Board of Directors meeting that occurred during an “icy” weekend. We were adding rooms, canceling rooms and changing roommates up until 10:00 p.m. Lindy responded to every crisis we threw her way, diligently working with the Hilton until everyone was safely situated. Not having the added stress of working directly with the hotel was a big relief.

When Lindy works her “magic” everything seems effortlessly to fall into place. She answers emails and phone calls promptly. Working with Lindy is a true pleasure.

To Whom It May Concern:

HelmsBriscoe has an exceptional reputation for creating successful events on any scale, and for us, Lindy Long always earns high marks for what she consistently pulls together for us.

Our company excursions are not large-scale by any means, but every step is always treated as if we were the largest client on the calendar. Lindy is always available when needed, detail-oriented, extremely thorough, and a pleasure to work with.

We look forward to working together for many years to come.

Sincerely,

To Whom It May Concern:

We were recently introduced to Lindy Long through a long-time volunteer and supporter of our foundation. Until meeting Lindy, we had always scouted and booked our meeting venues on our own—and we have been very successful securing what we needed. We were a little skeptical about changing our process but Lindy was very patient with us and provided us with such comprehensive information and feedback that we felt comfortable trying something new.

Lindy was an absolute pleasure to work with and listened to all of our concerns and responded with confidence and without pressure. She saved our office countless hours of staff time researching potential meeting venues and cities. Lindy took the time to really understand our group and special needs and was a true advocate for us while negotiating with potential properties.

We are very happy with the meeting property Lindy found for our upcoming 2018 National Conference!
